Leaving Certificate Examination, 2022

LATIN – HIGHER LEVEL

(300 marks)

Monday 27 June – Afternoon, 2.00 to 5.00

The 2022 examination papers were adjusted to compensate for disruptions to learning due to COVID-19. This examination paper does not necessarily reflect the same structure and format as the examination papers of past or subsequent years.

1. Answer Section A or Section B in this question:- [75]

A. Translate into Latin:-

When the citizens of Brundisium were preparing to flee, some scouts announced that the enemy had pitched their camp near the road. This news terrified the people so much that they abandoned their homes in sudden flight. The soldiers of the garrison in Brundisium feared that the enemy would soon capture the city without a fight. Therefore, they assembled in the forum as quickly as possible and rushed out from the gates in order to attempt to defeat the enemy. However, after a fierce battle, the soldiers were defeated and many of the citizens were killed. When news was brought to Rome that the enemy had captured Brundisium, the senators assembled to decide what to do.

explorator (m): a scout. subitus: sudden.

B. Read the following passage and answer, in English, all the questions which follow:-

(Pliny writes that his uncle Secundus works very hard while in Rome and also when travelling)

Miraris quomodo tot libros multosque in his tam longos meus avunculus, Secundus, scripserit? Magis miraberis si scieris illum multos annos causas actitasse, perivisse anno sexto et quinquagensimo. Ante lucem ibat ad Vespasianum imperatorem (nam ille quoque noctibus utebatur) inde ad delegatum sibi officium. Reversus domum, post cenam saepe, aestate si quid otii iacebat in sole, liber legebatur, adnotabat excerpebatque. Nihil enim legit quod non excerperet; dicere etiam solebat nullum esse librum tam malum ut non aliqua parte prodesset. In itinere quasi solutus ceteris curis, huic uni vacabat; ad latus notarius sedebat cum libro et stilis, cuius manus hieme manicis muniebantur, ut ne caeli quidem frigus ullum tempus studii eriperet; qua ex causa Romam quoque sella vehebatur; nam perire omne tempus arbitrabatur, quod studiis non devovebatur. Itaque soleo ridere cum me quidam studiosum vocant, qui si comparer illi sum ignavissimus.

causam actito: I practise law. officium: work, duty. adnoto: I make remarks on a book.
excerpo: I take extracts from. prosum: I am useful. vaco: I have time for. notarius: a secretary.
manica: a long sleeve. munio: I protect. studium: study.

(i) Why does Pliny expect the reader to be surprised? (6)
(ii) What, then, does he think will cause the reader even more surprise? (8)
(iii) How did Pliny's uncle, Secundus, begin his working day? (6)
(iv) What does the writer tell us about the Emperor Vespasian? (6)
(v) What did Secundus do after dinner when he got home? (8)
(vi) What did Secundus believe about every book? (8)
(vii) How did Secundus feel when he was travelling and who accompanied him? (8)
(viii) How was the secretary of Secundus protected from the cold in winter? (6)
(ix) What mode of transport did Secundus use when travelling to Rome? (4)
(x) Describe the attitude of Secundus to the way time should be used. (6)
(xi) How does the writer, Pliny, react when people consider him studious (studiosus)? (4)
(xii) How does Pliny feel that he compares (comparer) to his uncle, Secundus? (5)

2. Translate into English any one of the passages A, B, C, D. [65]

A. (Aeneas and his allies bury their dead; there is much weeping)

iam pater Aeneas, iam curvo in litore Tarchon constituere pyras. huc corpora quisque suorum
more tulere patrum; subiectisque ignibus atris conditur in tenebras altum caligine caelum.
ter circum accensos, cincti fulgentibus armis,
decurrere rogos; ter maestum funeris ignem
lustravere in equis, ululatusque ore dedere.
spargitur et tellus lacrimis, sparguntur et arma.
it caelo clamorque virum clangorque tubarum. Virgil (65)

Tarchon: ally of Aeneas. ater: black. caligo: black smoke. cinctus: dressed.
fulgeo: I shine, gleam. rogus: funeral pyre. lustro: I purify. ululatus: wailing.
spargo: I sprinkle. clangor: sound. tuba: trumpet.

B. (Catullus expresses delight that his friend Veranius has returned home)

Verani, omnibus e meis amicis
antistans mihi milibus trecentis, venistine domum ad tuos Penates
fratresque unanimos anumque matrem?
venisti. O mihi nuntii beati!
visam te incolumem audiamque Hiberum
narrantem loca, facta, nationes,
ut mos est tuus, applicansque collum
iucundum os oculosque suaviabor.
o quantum est hominum beatiorum,
quid me laetius est beatiusve? Catullus (65)

antistans (+ Dative); worth as much. unanimus: affectionate. anus: old.
Hiberum= 'of the Spaniards'. applicans= 'drawing towards me'. suavior: I kiss.

C. (A Carthaginian landing party under the leadership of Mago is driven back by the Romans)

Cum navigaret Hispaniae praeter oram, Mago, haud procul Carthagine Nova expositis in terram militibus proximos depopulatus agros, inde ad urbem classem appulit. Ibi cum interdiu milites in navibus tenuisset, nocte in litus expositos, ad partem eam muri, qua capta Carthago ab Romanis fuerat, ducit; nec praesidio satis valido urbem teneri ratus. Ceterum nuntii ex agris trepidi simul populationem agrestiumque fugam et hostium adventum nuntiaverant; et visa interdiu classis erat, nec sine causa captam ante urbem stationem apparebat. Itaque instructi armatique intra portam ad mare continebantur. Ubi effusi hostes ad muros tumultu maiore quam vi subierunt, patefacta repente porta, Romani cum clamore erumpunt. Livy (65) praeter (+Acc.): along. depopulor: I destroy. appello: I bring towards. interdiu: by day.

qua: where. ceterum: however. populatio: destruction. agrestis: a person from the country.
intra (+Acc.): within. patefacio: I open. erumpo: I break out.

D. (Adherbal advances to meet Jugurtha, but is attacked in the night and flees to Cirta)

Adherbal ubi intellegit regnum aut relinquendum esse aut armis retinendum, copias parat et Jugurthae obvius procedit. Interim haud longe a mari, prope Cirtam oppidum, uterque exercitus consedit; et quia diei vesper erat, proelium non inceptum. Ubi multum noctis processit, obscuro etiam tum lumine, milites Iugurthae, signo dato, castra hostium invadunt; alios semisomnos alios arma capientes in fugam egerunt. Adherbal cum paucis equitibus Cirtam profugit, et nisi multitudo civium fuisset, quae Numidas insequentes moenibus prohibuit, uno die inter duos reges bellum coeptum atque finitum esset. Igitur Jugurtha oppidum obsedit turribusque et machinis omnium generum impetum fecit.

Sallust (65)

semisomnus: half asleep, drowsy. turris: a siege tower. machina: a device.

3. Answer either Section A or Section B in this question:- [90]

(i) Translate into English:- (60)

Conspectum tam triste supplicium fregit animos Campanorum. Concursus ad curiam populi factus coegit Loesium senatum vocare; et primoribus, qui iam diu publicis consiliis aberant, propalam minabantur, nisi venirent in senatum, circa domos eorum ituros se et in publicum omnes vi extracturos esse. Is timor frequentem senatum magistratui praebuit. Ibi cum ceteri de legatis mittendis ad imperatores Romanos agerent, Vibius Virrius, qui defectionis auctor ab Romanis fuerat, interrogatus sententiam negat eos, qui de legatis et de pace ac deditione loquantur, meminisse, nec quid facturi fuerint, si Romanos in potestate habuissent, nec quid ipsis patiendum sit. 'Quid? vos' inquit 'eam deditionem fore censetis, qua quondam, ut aversus Samnites auxilium impetraremus, nos nostraque omnia Romanis dedidimus? Iam e memoria excessit, quo tempore et in qua fortuna a populo Romano defecerimus?'

Livy

‘Anchisa generate, deum certissima proles,
Cocyti stagna alta vides Stygiamque paludem,
di cuius iurare timent et fallere numen.
haec omnis, quam cernis, inops inhumataque turba est;
portitor ille Charon; hi, quos vehit unda, sepulti;
nec ripas datur horrendas et rauca fluenta
transportare prius quam sedibus ossa quierunt.
centum errant annos volitantque haec litora circum;
tum demum admissi stagna exoptata revisunt.’
constitit Anchisa satus et vestigia pressit, multa putans sortemque animi miseratus iniquam.
cernit ibi maestos et mortis honore carentes Leucaspim et Lyciae ductorem classis Oronten, quos simul a Troia ventosa per aequora vectos
obruit Auster, aqua involvens navemque virosque. Virgil
